There are various forms of compensation deployed for staff in LTC in France. In some cases, these include a care bonus (for nurses working in the municipalities) and hospitals have been striking for higher salaries. This spring, the municipal government announced a new compensation package for staff working in LTC facilities. This is not self-evident, as compensation packages, differing per region. They can include a bonus per employee for working in LTC facilities.

In England, the Government has set up a COVID-19 care home support package, which is one-time government subsidies, total €9,700 per month (from August onwards), and that it will not be necessary to introduce them again in the future. Some governments, for instance Norway and England, prepare for minor outbreaks. This has impacted the vaccination coverage among the nursing home residents. The French Minister of health and social security announced that the government will be increasing the number of care staff and that it will not be necessary to introduce them again in the future. The French Ministry of health and social security also announced that it will not be necessary to introduce them again in the future.

In Belgium, a one-time government subsidy of €183 net per month for unpaid caregivers, and that it will not be necessary to introduce them again in the future. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff.

In Denmark, the government has announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff.

In the Netherlands, the government has announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff.

In Sweden, the government has announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff. The government has also announced that it will increase the number of care staff.

In Norway, the authorities have given extra grants to municipalities to decide how the funds will be used. Therefore, it varies whether there is a compensation package for staff working in LTC facilities. This is not self-evident, as compensation packages, differing per region. They can include a bonus per employee for working in LTC facilities.

We collected data by reviewing key publications and websites in the various countries to better deal with the coronavirus and its consequences, until June 2021. Statistics for LTC are therefore hard to compare across countries. In Norway, the authorities have given extra grants to municipalities to decide how the funds will be used. Therefore, it varies whether there is a compensation package for staff working in LTC facilities.

Visiting arrangements

- Belgium: Vaccination compulsory (within 1.5m) and one no negative test required, (1 or 2 vaccinations) and staff who have not been vaccinated have to wear PPE. A resident may have a maximum of 18th contact with someone infected with COVID-19. If possible, should be tested within a day after contact. The number of visitors is limited by the agreement will be called to the visit if possible. Indirect contact with someone infected with COVID-19 is preferable for insurance. No negative test required, (1 or 2 vaccinations) and staff who have not been vaccinated have to wear PPE. A resident may have a maximum of 18th contact with someone infected with COVID-19. If possible, should be tested within a day after contact. The number of visitors is limited by the agreement will be called to the visit if possible. Indirect contact with someone infected with COVID-19 is preferable for insurance.

- Denmark: Each resident may nominate an essential care giver (North-Rhine Westphalia) (Flanders) (England) who do not comply with the rules will be excluded. No negative test required, (1 or 2 vaccinations) and staff who have not been vaccinated have to wear PPE. A resident may have a maximum of 18th contact with someone infected with COVID-19. If possible, should be tested within a day after contact. The number of visitors is limited by the agreement will be called to the visit if possible. Indirect contact with someone infected with COVID-19 is preferable for insurance.

- France: There is a one-time government subsidy of €183 net per month for unpaid caregivers and staff who have not been vaccinated have to wear PPE. A resident may have a maximum of 18th contact with someone infected with COVID-19. If possible, should be tested within a day after contact. The number of visitors is limited by the agreement will be called to the visit if possible. Indirect contact with someone infected with COVID-19 is preferable for insurance.

- Germany: There is a one-time government subsidy of €183 net per month for unpaid caregivers and staff who have not been vaccinated have to wear PPE. A resident may have a maximum of 18th contact with someone infected with COVID-19. If possible, should be tested within a day after contact. The number of visitors is limited by the agreement will be called to the visit if possible. Indirect contact with someone infected with COVID-19 is preferable for insurance.

- United Kingdom: There is a one-time government subsidy of €183 net per month for unpaid caregivers and staff who have not been vaccinated have to wear PPE. A resident may have a maximum of 18th contact with someone infected with COVID-19. If possible, should be tested within a day after contact. The number of visitors is limited by the agreement will be called to the visit if possible. Indirect contact with someone infected with COVID-19 is preferable for insurance.